Leonardo da Vinci is, undeniably, one of the most famous men in the history of the world - architect and sculptor, painter and engineer, writer and student of anatomy - his was a genius such as the world may never know again. Yet little is known about his personal life - even to his contemporaries Leonardo was considered a mystery. Magnificently illustrated, this volume offers readers an unparalleled reconstruction of Da Vinci's life and times based only on what is considered by scholars to be reliable information - much of it drawn from the National Edition of the Manuscripts and Drawings of Leonardo da Vinci, the Italian collection of all da Vinci's drawings and codices which Giunti was entrusted with editing and reproducing by Decree of the Republic of Italy from 1964 onwards. This title is a guide to the life and works of Botticelli. Mostly overlooked until the late 19th century, his masterworks 'The Birth of Venus' and 'Primavera' are among the best know works of Renaissance art. On life and works of Goya A Londra è notte. I signori Darling sono a una festa e i tre fi gli, Wendy, Gianni e il piccolo Michele, dormono nella loro stanza. Ma nel buio si sente un rumore; è Peter Pan. Qualche giorno prima era entrato in quella camera per ascoltare i racconti di Wendy ai fratelli, e il loro cane Nana era riuscito ad acciuffare la sua ombra, di cui ora Peter va in cerca per ricucirsela. Quale migliore occasione per tornare indietro insieme a lui verso l'Isolachenoncè? Con un pizzico di polvere di fata e un pensiero felice da tenersi stretto in volo, anche i fratelli Darling possono solcare i cieli e arrivare dove incanti e pericoli sono grandi, meravigliosi e veri come solo nelle avventure dei bambini possono essere. E quando sarà il momento di lasciare pellerossa, sirene, pirati dalla mano uncinata e fate gelose, Peter rimarrà all'Isolachenoncè, perché tutti i bambini crescono. Tranne uno. L'orsetto preferito di Emma è scomparso! Con l'aiuto di Jacopo e Lulu, la bimba si mette subito a caccia di indizi. Dov'è finito Noblù? Sarà stato rapito da un drago, da un dinosauro... dagli extraterrestri? La soluzione del caso sorprenderà tutti. "The body described in this book is a theoretical subject in which the connection between art and the categories of excess are explored. The author provides an analysis of the way the body has long been manipulated by its relationship with cultural, religious and political institutions, to the point of self-mutilation. What is being explored is the body as a construction of forms of discourse, obligations and mechanisms of control. The result is a mapping of the most significant iconographies of this special body that has always inhabited art. It is typically contemporary to choose a body that is at once subject and object of a multitude of events that suggest continual references to classical iconography, emphasising the numerous analogies and affinities between the experiences of contemporary artists and the most traditional Western iconography." "This thought-provoking volume presents a fierce and sophisticated vision, a remarkable sense of the spirit of the time, the representation of macrocosms which include methods, trends, acts of rebellion, mutations and images of humanity undergoing transformation."--BOOK JACKET. The significance of Leonardo da Vinci's contributions to the medium of painting is highlighted in this collection celebrating his works, including The Last Supper and The Virgin on the Rocks . This book avoids myths about da Vinci and presents a chronology of his life, a critical essay on his work, and selections of his drawings that support the claim that, above all other media, painting was da Vinci's primary focus. The flurry of his artistic activity and the importance of his work are showcased in this updated introduction to his life and art. Swim with 5 sea creatures in this colorful, tongue-twisting singalong! Based on the traditional cumulative song, each verse introduces a new animal and its place in the marine food chain, from the snail to the shark. Chosen as the BookTrust National Bookstart Week book in 2016, A Hole in the Bottom of the Sea offers a delightful dip into multi-sensory science learning sure to inspire young marine biologists. A QR code on the book provides access to video animation and audio. A companion volume offering essays, surveys and summaries to inform and enlighten. This is the first complete monograph on the life and work of one of Italy's most important contemporary artists and critics, Franco Vaccari. Exhibitions in real time covers his artistic production, from photography to video to his critical writing and is accompanied by a text written by a series of leading curators and critics. The book, which has been published to accompany a major exhibition at Spazio Oberdan in Milan, documents Vaccari's artistic evolution, from his beginning as a visual poet to the conceptual path undertaken since the late '60s and realised in a series of experimentations based on the use of different media, photography and video. This volume encompasses the whole documentation on Vaccari's Exhibitions in real time: 35 performances produced over 30 years. "Max Huber (1919-92) is one of the most significant graphic designers of the twentieth century. In this comprehensive monograph, the first to be published on this major figure, the authors trace and illustrate Huber's entire career, from his early years in Switzerland to his more mature work in Italy." "Huber's style assimilated the teachings of the early modern masters, such as Max Bill and Laszlo Moholy-Nagy, combining their principles with the enormous variety of cultural influences present in vibrant post-war Milan. This fully illustrated survey of his work demonstrates that Huber was among the first to apply the aesthetics of the avant garde to a corporate and commercial environment, creating formal solutions that he would go on to use throughout his life. Among the 450 illustrations in this book (the majority of which were never published before) are examples of his celebrated posters for the Monza races, his jazz record covers and book series for major Italian publishers, which remain appreciated today as superb examples of their genres." "Some of Huber's most enduring achievements were on a completely different scale and remain in the collective memory of generations and on the streets of Italy: his logo design for the department store La Rinascente and the supermarket chain Esselunga, were so influential as to change the public's perception of these two popular stores and, moreover, the visual landscape of Milan itself." "The three expert authors of this book (Stanislaus von Moos, Mara Campana and Giampiero Bosoni) were privileged to have the full support of Huber's widow, Aoi Kona, who granted them unrestricted access to the renowned archive of Huber's work that is now housed in the m.a.x.Museo, in Chiasso, Switzerland. This wide-ranging and exhaustively researched book demonstrates the importance of this fascinating and influential figure in the history of modern graphic design."--BOOK JACKET. A book about war, heroes, and the fictions of history. It was a Good Samaritan thing gone horribly wrong. She heard two men talking about killing some poor guy named Alastair. She only wanted to warn him--to save his life--but she soon found herself embroiled in his mess. He might be drop dead gorgeous. She might be forming a real attachment to his dog. But is any man worth this? Running for her life with a truly delicious hero, the help of his seven equally yummy brothers and one adorable dachshund named Jaws? Okay, maybe he is worth it. È il 1842: Pietro, abile calafato, lascia il lago di Como e si trasferisce sul lago d'Iseo, a Sarnico, dove ha inizio l'avventura dei Riva. Nascono le barche da pesca, poi i battelli a vapore e ancora i primi scafi da corsa e da diporto. Nelle pagine del volume Decio Giulio Carugati racconta la storia dell'evoluzione del Cantiere Riva. L'iconografia declina le immagini di alcuni tra gli scafi più famosi e dei personaggi che hanno contribuito a caratterizzare, per oltre un secolo, il mondo della navigazione da diporto. A companion volume offering essays, surveys and summaries to inform and enlighten. Text by Peter Weiermair. Contribution by Gerald Matt. "C'è un fratellino nella pancia della mamma e la mamma diventa a poco a poco bellissima, ma anche buffa e strampalata: canticchia, si addormenta e soprattutto ha voglia di zucca. E forse, con tutte quelle zucche, il fratellino dentro la pancia potrebbe diventare un fratellino 'zuccavuota'...Ci vuole un piano di salvataggio, che solo un fratello maggiore può ideare. Il protagonista di questa storia inizia così a raccontare al fratellino in arrivo tutte le cose belle che lo attendono, tutte quelle che nella sua testa non dovrebbero mancare: dai panini con la cioccolata al rumore delle onde del mare."-- Not just an ambitious restoration of a fascinating unseen archive, but a book that takes on the gargantuan task of shifting the collective memory around key moments in British youth culture history, with a mesmerizing force of honesty and humanity. By the man whose previous books Skins (1994), and Skins & Punks (2008), have been hailed as modern classics, Damiani is pleased to announce the latest Gavin Watson monograph, titled Oh the Fun We Had! Appropriating the Madness lyrics as an anthem of its times, this intimate selection of photography disrupts the notion of skinheads and council estate residents as problematic figures in an almost endearing manner while still preserving the subversive character of the cult of youth. At an undisputed time of little optimism, Oh the Fun We Had! is a very important fly-on-the-wall testimonial and reminder that no matter how difficult life is; so it shall also be Fun... At least when captured from the right angle. A companion volume offering essays, surveys and summaries to inform and enlighten. Erotic, enigmatic and ephemeral-feeling, this compact artist's book includes 60 artworks in different media, including videos, works on canvas, digital paintings, word sculptures, slides and printed photographs. Often out of focus, overexposed or underexposed, the works convey the feeling of a road movie, linking bleak, everyday experiences with sparkling, Hollywood-esque twists--a kind of hustler noir. Africa is a source of amazing bio-diversity and home to some of the planet's most spectacular landscapes. The sights of this awe-inspiring continent are captured with consummate skill and sensitivity by master lensman Michael Poliza. With extensive experience photographing the animals and terrain of Africa, Poliza's viewpoint is shaped by his concern for the fragile eco-systems he chronicles. These images embody the soul of Africa's flora and fauna with a true artist's eye for color and composition. This book will be enjoyed for years to come. Poliza started as a child actor on German TV, then founded several highly successful IT ventures in the US and Germany. His STARSHIP MILLENNIUM VOYAGE, around the world on a 75 ft expedition yacht, was avidly followed by millions via internet. Poliza now focuses mainly on film and photography, including work for the Discovery Channel. He spends a great deal of time based in Cape Town, and is a pioneer in the use of digital photography for illustrated books. ? An ideal gift, both for the lover of fine art photography and the keen naturalist ? A timeless collection highlighting the beauty of Africa's natural riches
