Unveiling Grace Aug 07 2021 A gripping story of how an entire family, deeply enmeshed in Mormonism for thirty years, found their way out and found faith in Jesus Christ. For thirty years, Lynn Wilder, once a tenured faculty member at Brigham Young University, and her family lived in, loved, and promoted the Mormon Church. Then their son Micah, serving his Mormon mission in Florida, had a revelation: God knew him personally. God loved him. And the Mormon Church did not offer the true gospel. Micah's conversion to Christ put the family in a tailspin. They wondered, Have we believed the wrong thing for decades? If we leave Mormonism, what does this mean for our safety, jobs, and relationships? Is Christianity all that different from Mormonism anyway? As Lynn tells her story of abandoning the deception of Mormonism to receive God's grace, she gives a rare look into Mormon culture, what it means to grow up Mormon, and why the contrasts between Mormonism and Christianity make all the difference in the world. Whether you are in the Mormon Church, are curious about Mormonism, or simply are looking for a gripping story, Unveiling Grace will strengthen your faith in the true God who loves you no matter what.

Fallen from Grace May 04 2021 In Fallen from Grace, Tyrone, a highly esteemed pastor and avid worker in the church, has found himself in a compromising position that has landed himself in a jail cell and his wife Shanice in hospital fighting for her life because she has endured physical and emotional pain. Tyrone was raised in church and personally learned in his younger years that we can become consumed in situations that can leave us broken and dealing with the transgressions of reaping from bad seeds that we have sowed in our earthly lives. Tyrone was into fast-street life and continuously fell short of God's glory. Yet God continued to show him that He is faithful and a forgiving God. Jesus paid the ultimate sacrifice and died for our sins because His desire is for His people to live life more abundantly. God also wants His people to walk in obedience and trust His word because being obedient is better than sacrifice. The Bible explains in Psalms 51:5 that we are born into sin and shaped into iniquity, but we are more than conquerors, and also in Romans 3:23, that all have fallen short of the grace of God, yet the mercy and grace of God are sufficient and will provide you with a guiding light in times of darkness. God's guidance led Tyrone to a place of refuge where he met Pastor Tony, with whom he collectively shared an interest in seeking wise counsel and leading the people of God under the leadership of Bishop Jones.

Deceitfulness clouded Pastor Tyrone's mind, causing him to sin. Yet the Holy Spirit overshadowed his life and provided him with the privilege of repentance and the ability to receive God's mercy and be saved by grace.

The Cross and Salvation (Hardcover) Oct 21 2022 With America's confidence in the Bible at an all-time low and the strength of her spiritual convictions waning, it is essential for Christians—especially Christian leaders—to be well-grounded in biblical theology. To have a clear and comprehensive understanding of the key doctrines of evangelicalism. In response, professor and award-winning author Bruce Demarest has made plain God's glorious plan of salvation, his provision for the human dilemma through Christ's work on the cross, and the application of saving grace to unbelievers. Demarest's unique approach defines each topic, identifies its most pressing issues, examines the ways in which the doctrine has been understood historically, and interprets the Bible's revelation. The result is a clear and carefully constructed doctrinal statement that you can defend, live out, and communicate to others. This singular, comprehensive treatment of one of Christianity's essential doctrines gives definitive, Bible-based answers about salvation and the cross—and about related theological issues such as grace and regeneration. Grace, Fallen from Nov 22 2022 In her wry and riveting new collection, Marianne Boruch discovers things often taken for granted and holds them up to deceptively casual light, questioning them both mercilessly and mercifully. Employing a masterly range of tone and form, Boruch makes a sometimes strange but always revealing investigation of world and self, history and memory, resistance and release. Here a woman levitates behind a door as her daughter badly bangs out Mozart. Here God is caught before the moment of creation, before knowledge, before "the invention/ of the question too, the way all/ at heart are rhetorical, each leaf/ suddenly wedded to its shade." It's here raucous boys on their bikes are told—through telepathy—don't go to this war. Here, that a Dutch still life is returned to the small chaos of its making. And Eve, in "stained fascination," stares down the snake of the lost garden. The lyric impulse in these deeply interior poems stops time, even as the world, indifferent to its mystery, keeps happening. Praise for Marianne Boruch: "Her poems are complex rather than simple rooms ... they bring the world's strangeness, and their own, home to whatever reader is open to old mysteries, both in dreams and in the waking life they illuminate."—Philip Booth, The Georgia Review "Marianne Boruch's (work) has the wonderful, commanding power of true attention: She sees and considers with intensity. Her poems often give fresh examples of how rare and thrilling it can be to notice."—Robert Pinsky, Book World, The Washington Post "Every detail of image and syntax shines with multiplicity."—Donald Revell, The Ohio Review

The Chronicles of Fallen from Grace, the Falls of the Bible and Some of My Own Galatians 5 Mar 02 2021 This book is about a "Symbolic Fall" that I took one day in church, back in 2006. So much has happened since then, and I wanted to share the miracle with you. We all fall to things in life, but during this fall I learned what real spiritual warfare is really all about. I was tripped right in church by the prince of the air, satan. Pastor had just preached the week before the satan is roaming the air and that he is in church. I remember saying to myself and family, "who let him in the church, and that if he messed with me in God's house, I was going to kick his butt right in church, and I did. See satan has always tried to defame my character, and I wasn't about to let him do it in my Father's house. Nonetheless, on January 15, 2006, he tried me. As soon as I got up out of my seat, I excused myself from the pew, and made a right turn, and then it happened. I bellied up, flat on my face, and all I heard God saying was "do not abort my mission". I had been struggling with the law finding it hard to keep. I really didn't understand that Christ through His grace and truth, fulfilled the law. I had been dealing with fear at that time as well, and that day I got delivered with revelations. I had to learn what God was talking about in a short period of time, when he said "do not abort my mission". He was referring to me fighting back against the enemy. See, I was always concerned with being embarrassed, appearance, and character, and satan new that, so he would do any, and everything to sabotage my walk with the Lord, and the way I looked. God wanted me to look down in my heart and find those scriptures that I was guarding there but not really using, because I didn't understand until that day, that the Word of God is the only way you can beat the devil. Although the Bible says to guard the Word in my heart, and I do, but it was time to stop guarding it, and to start speaking it. Faith without works is dead, and so was I. I had faith to believe in the word but had no idea that I was supposed to use the word for warfare. I was always taught vengence is mine, thus saith the Lord, so I never fought in the spirit prior to the fall. I just prayed for my enemies, defeated, because I did not know that the Word of God was the Two-Edged Sword that I needed to win in victory. Thank God for that fall because as you will see in this book, alot came out of it. That happened at 10:30 am, and by the time I got home at 12:45, I had this book conceived in my spirit. I fell many times in life, but none like this. See as righteous people in Christ Jesus, we will fall but it's up to us to get up and keep on living through the Holy Spirit. Many of us struggle to get back up because we don't believe God's Word. We would rather stay down feeling unworthy, then to say to ourselves "many are the afflictions of the righteous, but God shall deliver us from them all", like it says in the book of psalms 34:19. When I fell, I chose to believe the Word of God, and I fell on the Rock of my Salvation. Christ broke my fall, helping me to rise again. All I heard was the angels singing "swing low sweet chariot coming for to carry me home", and that's exactly what they did as the floor seemed to open up like the pit of hell. I'd like to say what may be an unlikely experience for the most of you reading this book, God turned this fall into a blessing for me. I was truly blessed during this process, and my sister said it the best, she said, "that when I got up from that particular fall, I rose higher in the Lord". All my thanks and praises are from God to God, because when I am standing strong, or fallen from grace, God has kept me thus far. "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again; but the wicked shall fall into mischief", Proverbs 24:16, and "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace", according Galatians 5:4. Choose God. May God and this book bless you.
